Innovative Teaching Methods

Title of Innovation method/activity: Green Box
Faculty / Inventor: Priya R Sankpal Designation: Assistant Professor
Course Name: Management & Entrepreneurship (V semester)
Goals / objective of method: To kindle interest/enthusiasm.

Topic covered through activity:

Functions of Management and Types of planning

Description of method (8 – 10 lines):

This activity is a modified version of dumb charades. For this activity, the class is divided into 8 teams and a team leader is chosen. Each team leader is shown the list of topics to be guessed by the other team members. Unlike Dumb Charades, here the team leader is not allowed to enact. Fellow members of the team are required to guess the word based on the topic by asking appropriate questions related to the topic. The team leader answers by just saying yes or no or the word is in the green box.

Benefits of method:

This activity enhances student's thinking & analytical ability and also it serves as a technique to memorize / remember the concepts with ease.
