advanced technologies in Ambulance services, Digital health trends, India’s healthcare market, ICT applications in health care, Health Information Technology, Mobile health and Wearable healthcare devices. The chief guest made the session fully interactive by posing questions to students and giving chocolates to the one who gave the right answer. She also screened some videos on technology outlook 2025, the five technology trends in healthcare and healthcare predictions.

The entire session was very interactive and students participated with full enthusiasm.

Dr. M.S Suresh, Dean, BNMIT, in his address congratulated all the students for their achievement and gave a message that students should take away mementos in hand and something (information) in the mind.

Dr. P. A. Vijaya, HoD, ECE congratulated all the FCD holders and motivated the students to get VTU ranks in future.

Mementos were distributed to all the FCD holders by the Dignitaries.
